

Guidance for opening Revit files for the first time:

In each video, the presenter accesses the dataset file from the Recent Files page on the Revit Home screen. If you're using the dataset for the first time, you'll open the file by clicking the Open button on Revit Home from the controls on the left panel.

Click Open and navigate to the dataset file that you downloaded as a resource for this course:

